

“Fear Not For I Am With You” Matthew 8:28-34

Demon possession is defined as demon invasion of the body of unbelievers only and generally, this occurs through some type of ritualistic religious practice.

Demon influence is false thinking from adapting to the policy and principles in which Satan operates.

Man's fall actually correlates with Satan's fall and it's the manifestation of an angelic rebellion against God.

From the time that Eve and then Adam listened to Satan, his world system began to influence all of creation.

Any behavior that follows Lucifer's arrogant motivation to act independently of God is demon influenced.

Matthew wants us to know that the Lord Jesus has the power to eventually deliver His creation from the control of Satan.

Please take comfort in the fact that no matter what happens to you in this life; even when there is demonic intervention, the demons in the world can only do what God allows them to do!

We can be fully confident that we cannot be demon possessed and we don't have to be even demon influenced; very simply because we are living, functioning temples of the Holy Spirit.

The greater our capacity for fear, the more we increase the power of fear in our lives and the more we increase the power of fear in our lives, the greater our mindset as a loser believer grows and the greater our chances of failure to execute the experiential plan of God.

When we get enough of the mind of Christ in us, we won't worry and nothing is more gratifying than sharing the happiness of God and enjoying His prosperity!

It's true that Satan is a genius and none of us could ever dream of competing with him BUT GOD in His infinite wisdom has made a way for us to be victorious in and through Jesus Christ, the solid Rock upon Whom we stand forever!
